Agee, Jr., supersedes Mr. Anderson at Herring's. The COURIER, while regretting to see Mr. and Mrs. Anderson leave Keytesville, wishes them well in their new home.

Grain, Flour and Feed.

I have opened a grain, flour and feed exchange in the Robertson building, and all I ask is a trial of the products I am handling. "Quality the highest, prices the lowest" is my motto.

T. J. HANCOCK,
Keytesville, Mo.

Telephone, 159.

Miss Idress Wallace, one of Keytesville's most amiable and accomplished young ladies, left Saturday morning for Claremore, I. T., where she has a position in Claremore academy for the present scholastic year. Claremore is the town at which Rev. J. R. Finley, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, is spiritual adviser to the Presbyterian flock.

Miss Irene Taylor of two miles west of Keytesville left for Kansas City Sunday afternoon where she will spend the winter taking music lessons on the piano. Miss Irene was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Ethel Wells, of four miles southeast of Keytesville, who will take a business course in the Kansas City Business college.

A Wabash brakeman by the name of Neiman was struck by a train at Salisbury Wednesday night, and was painfully bruised, but no bones were broken. Neiman was sent to flag No. 1, the west-bound Omaha passenger train, and it is supposed he sat down on the track and fell asleep. He was taken to the Wabash hospital in Moberly to be "mended."

W. P. Johnson, for many years a prominent citizen and successful farmer of near Shannondale, but who now owns a large body of land, near Lewis, Kas., was in Keytesville Monday in company with his brother, Judge Geo. T. Johnson, and "Billy" made the COURIER a very much appreciated call while here. He is greatly in love, he says, with his Kansas home, yet we thought we could discern a longing for old Missouri coming from the depths of his heart, and are frank to acknowledge that we do not blame him in the least for Missouri and her people are indeed hard to beat.

Asbury Chapel.

Revival services will be commenced at Asbury chapel Monday, October 2, at 7:30 p. m. and be continued indefinitely. Services each evening at 7:30 and Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. During the meeting the pastor will be assisted by Rev. H. E. Draper of Armstrong, Mo. All are invited.

E. J. Hughen of three miles west of Keytesville has sold his 80-acre farm to Joe Budel for $50 an acre. Possession is to be given the latter part of next month. Mr. Hughen came here from Nebraska four or five years ago and bought the farm of Chas. Fisher he has just sold to Mr. Budel, making a nice advance over the price he paid Mr. Fisher.

Judge W. W. Rucker, J. A. Collet and H. J. West of Keytesville and F. C. Sasse of Brunswick attended the Moberly end of the Randolph circuit court Friday. Judge Rucker and Messrs. Collet and Sasse went to Moberly Thursday, and say they were also in court that day, but we rather suspect they "adjourned" long enough to take in the circus which "happened" to be in Moberly the same day. It is very strange that such coincidences will occur, but they just will do it and there seems to be no way to avoid them, particularly when a fellow doesn't want to.
